The serious attention of the reader is invited to the various political advertisements, scattered thru this issue by candidates for city offices, also to the statement of Candidate Snip Crenshaw, published as an ad on the back page. I can not swear to what Snip said, but I CAN swear to what I know about the affair.

For the first time in my life—Hurrah for Dennis Murphree, head-line in the Claron-Ledger has it: Murphree submits his Recommendations, MAKES PLEA FOR BACK LOG IN WAR BONDS.

I resolve to treat them right. Tom Meek.

The right to vote as one chooses is an inherent right of the American citizen, and he should not receive advice, however good, from any army officials.

Several colonels elect as practicing before the mirror.

Mrs. Chester Irby, Sr., just came in and, having received a request from her son, had the GOW sent to Lt. Chester Irby (First Lt., by the way—a promotion) who has a New York APO address.

George Terrell has turned over a new leaf. So has J. L. Townes, Sr. Neither is going to throw away any money.

Mrs. Rose's Santa Claus' letter was answered as she has two helpers now.

The queenly Quintette, five bachelor girls, have moved into their new home in the Poplar Street addition.

By the forbearance of our creditors and by good luck, we have got by another first of the month, but taxes are ahead, do not know what I can report next month.

Overage officers of the army should be given the opportunity to resign. This is a young man's war. Old age is honorable, but that's about all you can say about it with respect to physical prowess.

Tom Abernethy was a hurried visitor to Grenada last week.

The GOW has been very cooperative with the Camp and with the two Divisions stationed here, and it should get more of the printing. One fellow gets tired of doing ALL the back scratching. I am getting a little weary. The same applies to the Army Air Base. Fairness demands that the GOW get its fair share of the paid-for printing from the military establishments. There is more than ONE printer in Grenada. The GOW can do ALL kinds of printing, but gets a damn small part from the army. When the various commanders appreciate the situation, their sense of fairness will cause them to change their allocations of printing. A country newspaper cannot exist on the diminishing revenues from a newspaper together with increasing expenses of all kinds, including taxes.

Some people, but not all fortunately, think all a country newspaper needs is news; that it can live on interest from bonds, or be fed by the ravens. It can not.

There is no use in putting me in ANY political camp. I frequently vote a conscientious vote, that is for the man whom I do not like, yet whom I feel is the best man.

If Bill Lott feeds the prisoners like I heard he was: meat three times a day, plenty of dessert and apples, he will soon have a waiting list for the Hotel de Jail, like the Grenada and Barwin have.

Uncle Sam is going to have to build a penitentiary as large as the State of Tennessee to accommodate the 130,000,000 people of the United States who have broken his laws, rules and regulations.

No wonder Roosevelt wants to change the party name from New Deal to Win the War. The New Deal is an anathema to everyone, including its beneficiaries. Anybody could be a popular president if he threw away the savings of the prodigal people to the needwells.

Alnt they sweet.

Squire Boushe's popular ex-secretary has moved to Belmont, Miss. and wants the GOW to follow her so she can keep up with the dizzy doing of the dopey Grenadians. I refer, of course, to Mrs. Faye Allison.

Somebody else is going to have to do some scratching.

I miss seeing old John George walking by, don't you?

Sec. 300. (1) No eviction or distress shall be made during the period of military service in respect of any premises for which the agreed rent does not exceed $50 per month, occupied chiefly for dwelling purposes by the wife, children or other dependents of a person in military service, except upon leave of court granted upon application therefor or granted in an action or proceeding affecting the right of possession.

(2) On any such application or in any such action the court may, in its discretion, on its own motion, and without application, unless in the opinion of the court the ability of the tenant to pay the agreed rent is not materially affected by reason of such military service, stay the proceedings for not longer than three months, as provided in this Act, or it may make such other order as may be just. Where such stay is granted or other order is made by the court, the owner of the premises shall be entitled, upon application therefor, to relief in respect of such premises similar to that granted persons in military service in section 301, 302 and 500 of this Act to such extent and for such period as may appear to the court to be just.

Successful Year For The Grenada C. of C.

The Grenada Chamber of Commerce started the year, 1943 with 67 members, suffered the loss of about four members by resignation and otherwise, but ended the year with 93 members—a very healthy increase.

Mr. J. B. Perry, Sr. completed his term as President, but the body is, at this time presidentless as the gentleman selected by the Board of Directors would not accept the presidency.

Mrs. M. I. Noel continues as Secretary.

John S. Ladd Buried Here Thursday Afternoon

As we go to press this (Thursday) afternoon, the body of Mr. John S. Ladd, one of the old timers of this city, is being buried here. For the past seven years, he has lived in Jilacy, Tenn.

Further details are lacking.

Pvt. Jack P. Ward Killed In South Pacific

News reached Grenada from the Commanding Officer of the United States Marine Corps Saturday that Pvt. Jack P. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward, had been killed in "the performance of his duty and in the service of his country."

Burial occurred near the scene of the place of his death—at present a military secret.

He was 19 years old and an active member of the Church of Christ. He was a graduate of the Grenada High School of the Class of 1942.

Surviving him are his parents; one sister, Mrs. Georgia Darrington and three brothers, Ben Sanders, of Grenada, H. G. Sanders, of Memphis, and Billy Sanders, member of the U. S. Air Corps.

Thus the list of the fine young men of Grenada who died for their country lengthens.

Jesse H. Carver Killed In California

Private Jesse H. Carver, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carver of the Holcomb community, has been reported as killed somewhere in California, according to a report from Holcomb. He was in the Air Corps. Details, if available to the parents, are not available for our use.

To the sorrowful parents, our sympathy is extended.

Rent Control and Ration Board In Same Building

Effective January 1, the Ration Board moved from its old quarters to the building known as Grenada (Civic) where the Rent Control office was and still is.

Mr. O. D. Spaulin is head of the Ration Board. He Mr. T. H. Meek is head of the Rent Control office.

The old groundhog came back with a chain of ducks around his neck recently.

Mrs. Neil J. Carothers Buried Here Saturday

Mrs. Mary Gibbs Carothers, wife of Mrs. Neil J. Carothers died in their home in Birmingham Thursday night, December 30, 1943 and was buried in Grenada, January 1, 1944.

Mrs. Carothers was born in Columbus, Miss. on December 14, 1891, the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Gibbs. She lived with her parents in Grenada many years ago and here, was an instructor in the schools. She was a sweet, lovely character, one who had many friends of long standing in this city.

On September 17, she and Mr. Neil Carothers, a native of Grenada and a son of the veteran Presbyterian minister of Grenada, were married. One son, Neil Jr., a professor in Lehigh University, came to this union. Soon after their marriage they moved to Birmingham, where they have since made home. She had been ill eight months before death eased her suffering.

On Saturday afternoon, funeral services were held by Rev. C. A. Pharr in the Presbyterian church. Interment followed in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Survivors include her disconsolate husband and one son, Neil Sr. and Neil Jr. and one sister, Mrs. T. H. Galpin of Memphis. Mr. Carothers' only brother, Hon. Andrew Carothers and his wife, Miss Mary Carothers, also survive.

To the sorrowful ones, all life long friends of the writer, sympathy is extended.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS INSTALLED HERE LAST MONDAY

Lt. Alwin Juchheim Receives Coveted Air Medals

An Eighth AAF Fighter Station, England—"For meritorious service in aerial flight in the completion of twenty operational sorties over enemy occupied Continental Europe"—2nd Lt.

Alwin M. Juchheim, 737 College St., Grenada, Miss., a Thunderbolt P-47 fighter pilot, received the coveted Air Medal and one Oak Leaf Cluster recently.

Colonel James J. Stone, Jr., Westfield, New Jersey, commanding the group, presented Lt. Juchheim with the award at ceremonies held on an VIII Fighter Command air base, "Somewhere in England."

A member of the oldest operational Thunderbolt fighter group in England—excepting a unit composed of a few former Eagle Squadron fliers—Lt. Juchheim, at 21 years, has been flying regularly this fall and winter over here in the so-called "Big League" of fighters.

His group is the largest numerically now on 'ops', and has been on combat status since early last spring.

A graduate of Grenada High School, Lt. Juchheim attended Soudan Junior College prior to enlisting in the aviation cadets. His wife, Mrs. Jane C. Juchheim, and parents reside in Grenada.

Grenada O. E. S. Held Open Installation

The Grenada O. E. S. Chapter held an open installation with the Masonic Lodge, Monday, December 27 at 8:00 p. m. There was a large attendance of Masons and O. E. S. members including many visitors. The meeting opened with two solos rendered by Chaplain Lewis of the Air Base which was most delightfully received by all present. The officers of the O. E. S. entered the Chapter room for installation, and were gowned in beautiful evening dresses which made the occasion one of the most notable events held in the Masonic Temple. The officers of the O. E. S. were installed by Mrs. Colombe Waterman, as Installing Matron, Mrs. Emma Rayburn as Installing Marshal, Mrs. Myrtle Thomas, as Installing Chaplain, Mrs. Dell Lufkin, as Installing Organist, Chaplain Lewis assisting Mrs. Colombe Waterman was escorted to the East by Mrs. Emma Rayburn and presented the gavel by Marshall Perry, the Worshipful Master of the Masonic Lodge. During the installation, a floral ceremony was held which was most impressive, the Installing Matron presenting the Star points and the Worshipful Matron, Mrs. Nettie Jobe, flowers appropriate to their officers.

The following elective and appointive officers were installed:

Worthy Matron, Nettie Jobe; Worthy Patron, Eli Whitaker; Associate Matron, Jamie Gum; Associate Patron, Jim Keeton; Secretary, Gertrude Keeton; Treasurer, Sallie Irby; Conductress, Annie Mae Jones; Associate Conductress, Annie Longcoy; Chaplain, Colombe Waterman; Marshall, Myrtle Thomas; Organist, Dell Lufkin; Adah, Pauline Briscoe; Ruth, Sue Ollis; Esther, Emma Rayburn; Martha, Sallie McEachin; Mable Calk; Warder, Ella Theisman; Sentinel, Pauline Griffin.

At the close of the Masonic and O. E. S. installation, all repaired to the Masonic parlors for refreshments, which was enjoyed by all present during the social hour. At the close of the Monday, January 3, 1944, the first Monday in January was the day set for the installation of the new county officers, each of them—listed below—were sworn in that morning. The new officers are as follows:

Clayton Carpenter, serving his first term as Sheriff, though he has been deputy under the outgoing Sheriff, T. T. Hayward, and under his deceased father, J. E. Carpenter. His deputies are Bill Lott, Jailor; Walter Young, outside deputy, and Mesdames Louise H. Carpenter and W. V. Davis, office deputies.

Hon. W. M. Mitchell was re-elected County Prosecuting Attorney without opposition.

John Pressgrove, beginning his third or fourth term has as his deputy, Jeanne Gallops.

Charlie J. Worsham, beginning his second term saved expenses of appointing his wife, Mrs. Worsham, as deputy.

Mrs. Charles H. Willis began her first term and has appointed Mrs. Billy Wilson as her deputy.

I. S. McKnight began his second term and reappointed Miss Cornie Perry as his deputy.

The Board of Supervisors, with only one new member, will be as follows: L. P. Horton, George Chamberlain, Warner Horton, (the only new one), Burns Strider, and Jim Elliott. Mr. L. P. Horton was elected president. Mr. W. V. Horton, who served as president during former terms, was appointed president pro-tem.

M. McKibben and Charlie Boushe continue as Justices of the Peace of District One. Tandy Lott succeeds Bert Smith as Constable of this beat. There is neither a J. P. nor a Constable in District 2.

M. O. Gray and J. W. Mahan continue as J. P. and Constable respectively in Beat 3.

J. W. Little and Jonathan Thomas continue as J. P. and Constable in Beat 4.

John E. Little was sworn in as J. P. in Beat 5, where there is no Constable. Ward Alexander is the new Coroner and Ranger.

Uncle Peter Carew, the veteran janitor of the court house, resigned, and Cornelius Jones was named to this post.

The Board of Supervisors met and finished their business Monday because, as one member expressed it they "had plenty of money and no arrangements to make."

The GOW wishes the new administration, composed largely as it is by those who merited continuance in office, much success in the four trying years ahead.

City Election To Be Held On Saturday

The election of city officers, not heretofore nominated without opposition, will be held at the City Hall on Saturday, January 8, 1944.

There are two candidates for Mayor: Mr. L. C. Proby, the present mayor, also a man who served in that capacity a four-years term, beginning in 1930; and Mr. Marshall Perry, ex-representative from Choctaw County and ex-prosecuting attorney of Grenada county, a position he resigned to become attorney for the Rent Control Office. Mr. Proby is now serving out the unexpired term of the late Robert W. Sharp, who died in 1942. Mr. Perry is in private practice of law.

There are two candidates for City Marshal: Mr. W. W. Odum, the present holder of the office serving his first term; and Mr. J. D. Crenshaw, who served several terms before his defeat by Mr. Odum in 1940.

All aldermen, except those from West Ward, and Mrs. Willye Y. West were nominated without opposition. There are four names on the ticket from West Ward: J. D. Moss and G. F. Deaton, both incumbents, and Messrs. Dave Childers and F. R. Lickfold, Jr.

All voters will vote in the Mayor's office where there will be two boxes, viz: the East Ward box and the West Ward box.

Each person who votes must have a poll tax receipt dated on or before February 1, 1942 and another on or before February 1, 1943.

I knew Brother Haxby could not stay away from Grenada until the 10th. He has been busy so long that illness and leisure are as hard on him as work would be on Julius Townes, Sr.

Installations to Past Worthy Matron and Past Worthy Patron were presented gifts.

★ CONSERVE COOKING FUEL

Fuel is a victory essential and your government now asks you to conserve your bit at every opportunity. With everyone contributing, the effect will be tremendous in hastening the day of victory. As a conservation measure, it is essential to save the use of electricity wherever possible so as to reduce, directly or indirectly, the demands for fuel, transportation, and manpower. One way to do this is to eliminate waste in cooking. Much fuel can be saved by following these few simple hints.

- Lower the heat once water is boiling. It will remain at this temperature.
- Don't heat a whole teakettle of water when you need only two cups.
- Don't waste heat by continually opening the oven door. Each opening uses extra electricity and gas.
- Save more fuel by using ovens for preparing complete meals rather than single dishes.
- Cooking can be finished with heat stored in the gas or electric oven, after the current or gas has been turned off. Every little bit of fuel savings helps your country.
- Have food ready when oven is ready. Avoid long pre-heating.
- Cook most vegetables in the smallest possible quantity of water—this saves vitamins and minerals too.
- See that all covers fit tightly.

★ MILK AND MILK PRODUCTS

Why do we need milk? Milk has been called the most nearly perfect food for milk and milk products contain so many of the food substances we require. They are excellent sources of protein, which build muscles and other soft tissues in children and keep those of adults in good repair. For strong bones and sound bodies, use milk in foods and drinks. If you have a hard time persuading even the most hardened milk-hater to get part of his daily quota of this important food why not try this ever tempting Refrigerator Cheese Cake.

REFRIGERATOR CHEESE CAKE

1/4 cup melted butter or fortified margarine
1/4 cup sugar
2 cups graham cracker crumbs
2 tbs. gelatin
1 cup cold water
3 eggs, separated
2 cups dry cottage cheese
3 tbs. lemon juice
1/4 cup sugar
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup top milk or cream

Blend the butter or margarine, 1/4 cup sugar, and cracker crumbs. Press three-fourths of this mixture on the bottom and sides of a spring form pan, or a large pie pan. Soak gelatin in 1/2 cup of the cold water for 5 minutes. Cook egg yolks, 1/4 cup sugar and remaining water over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture coats a metal spoon. Add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Press dry cheese through a sieve and add custard mixture to the cheese. Add lemon juice, rind and salt, beat thoroughly. Cool and when beginning to congeal, beat several minutes with an egg beater. Add cream and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Blend thoroughly. Pour into crumb-lined pan. Sprinkle remaining crumbs over the top. Chill until firm.

VOTERS of GRENADA

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, YOU WILL SELECT A MAN TO BE YOUR MAYOR FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS, AND WE EARNESTLY SOLICIT YOUR SUPPORT AND VOTE FOR THE PRESENT MAYOR.

L. C. PROBY

MRS. PROBY HAS SERVED SIX YEARS AS MAYOR OF GRENADA: FOUR DURING THE DIFFICULT DEPRESSION YEARS, AND TWO YEARS THAT WILL END IN MAY THIS YEAR. BOTH OF HIS ADMINISTRATIONS HAVE BEEN HONEST AND EFFICIENT UNDER TRYING CONDITIONS. HE HAS BEEN ABLE TO COOPERATE WITH TWO ENTIRELY DIFFERENT BOARDS OF ALDERMEN, AND ALL MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENTS ARE IN PERFECT HARMONY.

THE MAYOR AND HIS CITY ADMINISTRATION HAVE GAINED THE RESPECT AND CONFIDENCE OF THE MEN OF CAMP McCain AND THE GRENADA AIR BASE, WORKING WITH THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THESE MILITARY UNITS WITH SPLENDID COOPERATION. THIS HAS MADE IT POSSIBLE FOR GRENADA TO NEARLY TREBLE IN POPULATION AND ABSORB TREMENDOUS CROWDS OF SOLDIERS WITH A MINIMUM OF TROUBLE.

PROBY

IS AGGRESSIVE, INTELLIGENT, AND HAS THE COURAGE OF HIS CONVICTIONS. HE HAS LIVED IN GRENADA FOR 23 YEARS, MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR HIM TO KNOW GRENADA AND HER PROBLEMS THOROUGHLY. THE NEXT FOUR YEARS, WITHOUT A DOUBT, WILL BRING PEACE AND POSTWAR PROBLEMS THAT WILL BE TOUGH TO SOLVE. WE CERTAINLY WILL NEED A MAYOR OF EXPERIENCE, COUPLED WITH ABILITY. HOW CAN WE DO BETTER THAN TO SELECT A MAN WHO HEADED A SUCCESSFUL LOCAL GOVERNMENT WHEN THE DEPRESSION WAS AT ITS WORST, AND DID IT AGAIN DURING THE BOOM TIMES OF TODAY?

VOTE FOR PROBY SATURDAY, JANUARY 8TH, 1944

DEPENDABLE CREDIT MEANS INDEPENDENT FARMERS

After the coming of the boll weevil there was considerable demonstration among the farmers of this section and many attempts were made to produce new crops and introduce new farming practices, but the commercial banks and lending agencies were not accustomed to extending this type of credit and could not be made to see that credit for soil building, pasture, and livestock or any departure from the old routine was safe. And so the Greenwood section rocked along with first a good year and then a bad year, and always with more or less unemployment for the average farmer, and when the days of inflation came the farmers together with others went heavily in debt and were little prepared for the thing that followed the break of the stock market in 1929 and were entirely unable to cope with the situation presented by the dark years of 1930, '31 and '32 and hopelessly at a standstill when the Depression of 1933 engulfed all business and credit no longer existed, whether based on moral or financial worth. Many banks had closed their doors and industries laid off their pay rolls and farmers could find no place where they could secure credit to carry on their farming under necessarily changed conditions.

W. S. VARDAMAN

It is true that in 1931 Congress began to appropriate huge sums of money to try to keep open the doors of banking institutions and enable industry to survive, but although 4 billion dollars was appropriated to assist these institutions none of the money seemed to reach the farmer and he still stood by begging for credit to carry on or save his place from foreclosure.

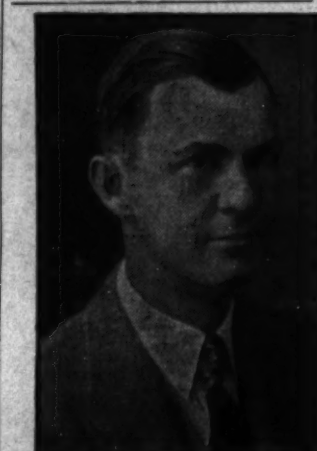

Then out of these years of darkness and despair came the Act of Congress (1933) creating the Production Credit System, from which sprang the Greenwood Production Credit Association made up of earnest, intelligent, interested but frightened farmers hoping to get away from the uncertainty of bank and merchant credit and to be relieved of high rates of interest and costs that had so long prevented them from planning their operations in such a manner as to make progress and adjust their methods to meet the changed conditions.

Congress set up 12 Farm Credit Districts and from the Fifth District located in New Orleans the Production Credit Corporation requested the Governor to grant a charter to the farmers of the Greenwood Production Credit Association and the corporation then furnished the association with sufficient Government funds to enable it to live on the interest of these bonds until it could become a going concern.

On January 4, 1933, 26 outstanding, earnest farmers gathered together at Greenwood and organized the Greenwood Production Credit Association now authorized to do business in the counties of Carroll, Grenada, Holmes, Leflore, Tallahatchie, and Yazoo with headquarters at Greenwood. It had been stated that credit needs were already provided for the entire Delta but in addition to the association at Greenwood one was also set up at Indianola, Clarksdale, Greenville, Miss., and at Tallulah, La., and all of these associations do a large volume of business.

These men who met to form the Greenwood association were courageous pioneers in cooperative farm credit and believed there was enough ability and business experience among farmers to justify them in selecting a board of directors made up exclusively of farmers to manage a great business enterprise doing business only with farmers. The names of these original incorporators will live as long as this great long staple section continues its leadership toward a better permanent agriculture and a more abundant life. The original incorporators were: E. F. Rathell, Henry B. McGee, G. H. Love, N. D. Hemphill, W. S. Giddens, J. B. Bruce, Doyle Seward, F. A. Taylor, J. A. Williams, Jr., P. C. Williams, R. L. Pillow, J. F. Graham, R. C. Shely, C. E. Anderson, Walter B. Pillow, William S. Vardaman, R. P. Turner, Smith Murphree, W. A. McMullen, E. L. Boker, H. Y. Frasier, W. L. Love, E. B. King, R. F. Duiweber, Lem B. Montgomery and R. West. The association began with 9 directors but the system was soon changed to five directors and the following constitute the present board of directors: W. S. Vardaman, C. E. Anderson, H. P. McGee, W. A. McMullen and L. W. Wade with R. G. DeLoach as Secretary Treasurer.

association. At the close of the tenth year of operations $150,000 of Government money has already been retired and $25,000 more will be retired during this month. The association has in the meantime built up its own resources so that the farm members now own approximately $101,000 of the capital stock and have built up reserves of $196,208 to strengthen and enlarge the activities of the association. The actual net losses sustained during the ten years of operation amount to less than one-fiftieth of one percent of the amount of loans made.

During the life of the Greenwood association individual loans have been made to more than 6900 farmers, with many additional advances, for approximately $13,000,000. This does not seem so important until you consider that the average individual loan furnishes credit for at least five farm families and the average family consists of more than 4 persons. Many of the loans have been made to the same persons from year to year, but this means that in ten years more than 1,000,000 people have obtained major part of their agricultural credit through their own association and the money has been available just when needed and always at the lowest cost ever enjoyed by the Mississippi farmer and the line interest has been paid only for the number of days the money was actually used. Of special importance to the Delta farmer is the fact that the Greenwood association does not dictate to him as to where he buys his goods and supplies nor to whom he sells his cotton and cottonseed. This spirit of independence made possible by a source of dependable credit which does not seek to control its borrowing members has had a far reaching effect in this district.

As the association concludes its first ten years of service the officials and members feel a satisfaction in realizing that the people appreciate this supplemental credit agency, working in harmony with other local institutions, and that the association serves as a strong steady balance in the affairs of the great Mississippi Delta country. The majority of business men agree with farmers in their view that any attempt to deprive this cooperative association of the temporary support now given by the Government in any other manner than that prescribed by Congress which created by the Production Credit System would bring about an unfortunate condition which would be just as serious in destroying the fruit of the farmer in his own institution as would be the withdrawal of the 150 million dollars appropriated by Congress for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to guarantee the deposits of farmers and business men in our commercial banks.

Mr. E. L. Boteler represents the Greenwood Production Credit Association in Grenada county with office in the court house.

County Is Ready To Launch Drive; FDR Backs Plan

"The National War Fund—like all essential parts of our war effort—must be given abundant and prompt support toward its goal," President Roosevelt said in his endorsement of the NWF campaign which stages its drive here from October 25 to November 5.

To help support the 17 approved war-appeal agencies and local charity and character-building organizations included in the NWF, all county citizens will be asked to contribute to the campaign. Plans are complete for county workers to thoroughly canvass each community before the drive ends.

"Because the NWF includes all national and local welfare groups, and because we will give only once for all of them, contributions by individuals must be generous," leaders explained. We must lump all we would normally give to various campaigns into one large sum in order to make the NWF campaign a success.

"The drive is officially endorsed by the President. It is an improvement over the old confusing way of raising money, and it permits you to budget your wartime giving more easily.

"When you give, you give to suffering humanity at home and abroad. The NWF drive does at one time, what it took various welfare groups many months to do.

"Yet it does not intrude upon the autonomy of any of these agencies. The USO, China Relief, British War Relief, and all the others will be left under their present efficient and experienced direction. They will be freed from the task of raising money, and have time to devote full time to their good works, and you will not have to dig down so often that your pockets become frayed at the edges."

County leaders say several hundred men and women solicitors, joined by local civic organizations, will make a systematic canvass for funds "for this most human phase of the war effort."

THESE LETTERS ARE AN EXACT COPY OF LETTERS FROM THE WAR PRODUCTION BOARD AND INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER COMPANY.

A Letter From War Production Board

October 18, 1943
International Harvester Company,
180 North Michigan Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois
Attention: L. W. Perkins
Gentlemen:

This will confirm the conclusion reached at a meeting of Technical Alternates of the Farm Tractor Industry Advisory Committee, held in Washington, D. C. last Friday, October 15, 1943, at which your Company was represented.

In view of the fact that tractor production is currently 25% behind schedule, and will apparently still be lagging on January 1, 1944, the War Production Board and the War Food Administration stated that immediate action must be taken to correct this situation.

As indicated at that meeting, the first step is for you to file with this Division on or before October 29, 1943, any revised production plans which you may wish to submit. These revised schedules should be on a realistic basis, considering the component situation in the light of the facts presented at the above meeting and your own knowledge of your chances or receiving the necessary components on time. Unjustified optimism or mere hopes that the situation will improve should not enter the picture. These schedules should be filed on Form WPB-3181, together with any supporting data which may be necessary to justify or explain the changes.

If, from all the facts within your knowledge and as presented at the above meeting, you are not reasonably certain that you can build all the tractors presently scheduled by you, you are requested to tell us what the expected deficit will be. The revised WPB-3181 should show no more tractors for completion by June 30, 1944, than you reasonably expect to produce.

If, on the other hand, you believe that you can deliver by June 30, 1944, more tractors than you have presently scheduled, this should be indicated by filing also on or before October 29, 1943, a formal appeal for increased quota under Schedule "A" of Order L-257 and/or from 6-257-a. No appeal will be considered unless it is fully documented as to availability of materials, labor and components (including those made by you), together with satisfactory evidence that your suppliers can and will furnish you on time whatever components you do not make yourself. This appeal should also include the filing out of a supplementary tentative WPB-3181 which will indicate the monthly production of the additional machines.

In the event that you appeal for additional tractors, you should also appeal for the proper number of units, if any, of integral and/or complementary implements, which in your judgment will be required.

These revised schedules will be considered by the War Production Board as your promise (or "performance bond") to the American people, as well as to the United States Government, that all the tractors scheduled by you will be produced in the months indicated. The War Production Board will naturally continue to render all assistance possible in breaking individual bottlenecks. However, in all troublesome cases, and increased efforts based on your own individual initiative will be essential, furthermore, time is so short that no revisions downward in tractor schedules should be considered after the above deadline.

If it develops that tractors are unavailable next Spring because of your failure or inability to meet these revised schedules, you, as producer, rather than the War Production Board, will have to assume the responsibility. The War Production Board is at this time giving you an opportunity to tell us of any possible deficit, so that we can arrange to shift this deficit to those producers who are in a position to manufacture additional machines, but who must be notified promptly in order to achieve any increased production.

Very truly yours,
George Krieger, Director
Farm Machinery and Equipment Division

Letter From International Harvester Co.

October 28, 1943
Mr. George Krieger, Director
Farm Machinery and Equipment Division
War Production Board
Washington, D. C.
Dear Mr. Krieger:

Your letter of October 18, 1943 was duly received and, to say the least, it has somewhat puzzled us. May we request the events in order to tell you why.

On October 15 the Technical Alternates of the Farm Tractor Industry Advisory Committee of the War Production Board were called to Washington and asked for more expedition in the production of the tractor quotas of their respective companies. At the meeting persons selected by the WPB, presumably because of their knowledge, were called in to inform the manufacturers of the component part difficulties. All together, it was a discouraging report.

We ask you in all seriousness—is this the way to stimulate tractor production? Has not exactly the opposite policy achieved our great war production? Manufacturers have been urged to take on war work in the face of many apparent difficulties and knowing full well that others not yet foreseen would develop—all in the faith that the combined resourcefulness and effort of government and industry, ways would be found to overcome these difficulties as they arose and that only in this way could the greatest progress be achieved.

Now, when the production of equipment for the War Food Program has become of paramount importance it would seem this proven procedure is to be abandoned. Manufacturers are told not to try, not to dare, not to believe that any solution for any difficulty can be worked out in the future, which is not now apparent; to accept as permanent, without hope of improvement, the predictions of a few human individuals as to the continued shortage of component parts and to limit their efforts to a minimum—all under penalty of being blamed if they dare to try to produce more and fail to wholly succeed.

If manufacturers were to accept literally the instructions given in your letter, we seriously doubt that any manufacturers could state and prove his absolute ability to manufacture tractors for more than a very short period beyond the present. If schedules were to be revised on the basis of literal acceptance of your instructions, most of the tractors now scheduled under L-257 would be cancelled. If that occurred—and we do not believe manufacturers are timorous enough to take that course—no manufacturing facilities able to produce that many tractors could be found. Furthermore, if you apply the same standards to any manufacturer to whom you propose to transfer quotas as you have applied to manufacturers from whom quotas would be taken away, we doubt that any manufacturers could qualify for such an increased quota.

One thing we are sure of is that the farmers will have more tractors if every manufacturer is told to dare and try to produce the whole, or as great a portion of his quota as possible, and is promised and given the greatest possible government assistance.

If anything was made plain at the meeting of October 15, it was that neither you nor the manufacturers could forecast some important aspects of the future, because of the many uncertain factors which exist.

What are the uncertain factors which will most influence tractor production under Order L-247. I think you will agree that these factors are, first, the availability of materials and critical component parts, second, the availability of factory manpower, third, the future policy of the government with respect to war production.

All three of these uncertain factors will be governed by the events of the war, and government policy will change accordingly. If the government decides that additional manpower or materials or facilities are needed more for armament production than for food production than tractor production will suffer. On the other hand, if the needs of the fighting services decrease, the production of increased numbers of tractors would be made much easier.

You have written a letter to us which says, "If it develops that tractors are unavailable next spring because of your failure or inability to meet these revised schedules, you, as producer, rather than the WPB, will have to assume the responsibility." We know our responsibilities and are always prepared to assume them. We desire to state, however, that no declarations can possibly relieve the War Production Board of its responsibility for the results of this program, which was conceived by the War Production Board and whose operation is directed by the War Production Board.

Coming now to the question you ask as to whether our Company can manufacture the quota of tractors allocated to it within the specified time and according to the schedule heretofore filed with your office, we now advise you that after thorough consideration we feel "reasonably certain" that "we can do so. This refers to all tractors allocated to our Company for manufacture under L-257, including the lap over of the remainder of these allocated under L-170. In this situation there is no reason for filing a revised production schedule.

We assure you that we will use our best endeavors to complete our quota and we are ready to assume our full share of responsibility for so doing. We are glad to note the statement in your letter that the War Production Board will "render all assistance possible in breaking individual bottlenecks."

Your letter also asks manufacturers to advise you if they believe they can produce more tractors than presently scheduled. We have no desire to depart from the quota system or to obtain any part of the quota allocated to any other manufacturer, but if for any reason any manufacturers feel unable to build tractors up to their full quota, our Company is prepared to take on the manufacture of additional tractors, not exceeding 7500. This would involve no change in our present scheduling, as we would plan to manufacture these tractors after the completion of our present schedule, ending June 30, 1944, and during the month of July, 1944, which is the last time for completion of orders under L-257. To make this offer a matter of record and as required in your letter, we are filing herewith a formal application for this increased quota.

In closing we wish to refer to the statement in your letter that tractor production of the industry is behind schedule. That was true for a time, but so far as our Company is concerned it is not true now. Low production was due to the very low volume authorized by Order L-170, effective November 1, 1942. The mistake made (now generally recognized) in cutting production so low was not remedied until March 6 when substantial increases in production were authorized.

Since that time our Company has wrestled with the problem of rebuilding its tractor organization, getting back old or training new men, and gradually increasing production. Between March and October our daily production rate has been increased from about 50 to more than 200 tractors daily.

We believe you will agree that this is pretty good progress by our Company but special difficulties of this character should be prevented in the future. Industry operates best at a constant rate of production. It is difficult, even in normal times to maintain an organization through the peaks and valleys in production, and much more difficult under present wartime conditions.

Very truly yours,
J. L. McCaffrey,
Second Vice President.

Byrd For President

Far be it from me to believe that I have any influence in the destiny of the Democratic Party, which, as every sensible person knows is now the New Deal party, not even a bastard third cousin to the real Democratic party—but I do think that the Democrats should nominate a real Democrat, Senator Byrd of Virginia, for President.

This man has lifted his voice continuously, if vainly, in denunciation of the damphoodishness of the Roosevelt administration and in the exposure of the terrible extravagances that have occurred not only during the war but also during the "give-away" era beginning in 1933. No man in public life of the Nation is, in my opinion, more capable of being a real leader toward soundness in government, more earnest in his desire to get back to the Constitution, and more physically capable of carrying out the huge task that faces the new President.

The cardinal plank in Mr. Roosevelt's platform was that the world reduce federal expenses by TWENTY-FIVE percent. No sooner than he was elected, he began throwing away money with both hands. He has surrounded himself with a bunch of crackpots who have made a huge, and unsuccessful experiment with what was once the greatest and the wealthiest nation on earth. The ONLY reduction in expenses that I know he made was the withdrawal or reduction of the miserably small pensions that veterans of the first World War received. He has exhausted the alphabet in rigging up new spending agencies. If things get any worse we will have agencies with Greek names, like Kappa Sigma Phi and Zeta Omicron Omega. Slaughter of pregnant sows, burning of wheat, and ragged negroes and poor white folks plowing up cotton in a naked and hungry world were just mild expressions of his philosophy. Creation of a multitude of federal lending agencies has driven legitimate business almost crazy, and why not? His administration has, during the war, spent billions in building ports and airfields on territory to which the United States has no more title than I have to the Statue of Liberty. Ad infinitum. Ad nauseum.

The GOW nominates Senator Byrd of Virginia as the standard bearer of the real Democratic Party.

RESPECT YOUR CORDS AND PLUGS

The "life line" of many a home appliance is the electric cord which is one more article that deserves special care. For copper and rubber, used in such cords, are needed by our fighting men. Copper and rubber go into the very implements that can make the difference between life and death for our armed forces. Success or failure of the war. So treat them with care both when they are "on duty" and "off duty."

If you have a switch at the outlet, turn it to "off" before you connect any equipment. To disconnect the cord, grasp the plug, not the cord, pull straight and if the plug should stick, rock it gently from side to side as you pull to loosen one connection at a time. Never yank the cord or kink or twist it.

Don't get the cord wet. Don't handle a dry connected cord with wet hands. It just isn't safe. Don't hide a cord where it will be stepped on or pushed against, and don't nail it to the wall. Hang the "off duty" cord over large round wooden pegs or two or more metal hooks.

Inspect the cords from time to time to be sure the insulation has not cracked, frayed, or worn thin. You may further increase the life span of your cords if you know how to make new connections between plug and cord and how to replace frayed or worn coverings. Thread-bare insulation is a danger signal, for exposed wires can cause a short circuit, fire, or serious shock.

A Suggestion

Lt. Clara E. Kramer, having been appointed a Billeting Officer of Camp McCain, seeks the cooperation of landlords and soldier tenants alike. From conversation with this officer, I am sure that she wants to "sell" the idea of reasonable rents and proper quarters for military personnel to the people of this area and not to use the "club" that she has.

My suggestion is this: that this officer be invited to meet with the C. of C., with the Lions and the Rotarians and with some of the women's clubs, to the end that she attempt to "sell" the idea to these leaders, and to get suggestions from the members of the organizations. I know that she intends to confer personally with those who are suspected of charging too much for too little. I believe she earnestly desires to keep the velvet gloves on the iron hands.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act

For the benefit of landlords and members of the military personnel, we are publishing elsewhere Article III of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940.

Reduced to plain English, this act seems to mean that the wives or other dependents of men in the military service cannot be evicted as long as their rent is paid. Another law, not here cited, is called the OPA, and this law fixes the rent.

Very few people know of these laws, and it is timely that those concerned inform themselves of their provisions.

Roses in December

Not all the skies are sunny; oftentimes there are clouds of gray.

And laughter seems to leave us when trouble comes our way.

But from our eyes we can dry the tears if we will but remember,

Through pleasant memories to have roses in December.

Memories of loved ones and friends of the days gone by who have long since gone to their home beyond the sky. The smiles of babies; cute things little children have to say.

These are always good to drive the blues away.

It's easy to have pleasant memories and this is the reason why.

Kind deeds and loving words are things that never die.

I'll lift mine eyes toward Heaven and always try to remember,

Through pleasant memories to have roses in December.

—Mrs. J. M. Bryant.

Camp McCain

Change is the thing we are sure of,

And the battles of 1943 give assurance thereof.

May our vision continue clear, and our hearts strong, Filling together in teamwork, so we'll never go wrong.

Many is the trying task that has been our lot, Comforted only by victory among the canister and shot.

Ceaselessly we toil together,

A tending to every detail, regardless of weather.

I numerous pitfalls lay out ahead,

None we cannot master with plenty of lead.

"A goofy lunch pulls your punch."

That tired feeling that gets you in hot weather when you eat a goofy lunch may be due to the fact that the lunch does not contain something you should have eaten.

"It is a snack that has a lack." It lacks foods you need for health protection and energy to do your job.

If you are dependent upon a box lunch, be sure it is a good box lunch. A half-pink of milk, two substantial sandwiches on whole wheat or enriched bread, a raw carrot or tomato and an orange, cookies or other dessert makes a good box lunch.

If red stamps are scarce for meat and cheese sandwiches, a good suggestion is a filling of peanut butter, baked beans, eggs, or cottage cheese.

Some folks like to make their own sandwiches just before eating them — "A La Dagwood." For this type of packed lunch, salad dressing can be carried in a small glass bottle with a screw top and lettuce can be wrapped in waxed paper — a bread wrapper will do — This prevents sandwiches from getting limp and soggy in hot weather.

Something crispy and something colorful in a packed lunch gives appetite appeal. Raw, crispy carrot sticks are a good choice. A whole tomato also adds color and zest to a packed lunch.

Hot or cold drinks packed in a vacuum bottle will keep cold for many hours. Both hot and cold lunches need to be good lunches, not goofy lunches that will cause fatigue and accidents.

My Poor Little Baby

Yes, my poor little old baby, Margy, with the bloom in her cheek fresh from the Southern cotton fields is being framed by a big Badger from Wisconsin. He says he's going to fight the poor little thing till the cows from Wisconsin come home and one of his most flimsy excuses is, that Butter carries sixteen points and Oleomargarine only carries six points. Ha, Ha, just as if we the people were going to be rationed right on indefinitely after it's all over, over there. No this big brother had better get another tree to bark up, because we ain't calculating to be rationed much after all the bells and whistles start to blowing and ringing that FREEDOM has arrived for people all over the world. (That'll mean us too).

Not An Outcast Now

Yes, we've always heard that "What's good for the Goose is good for the Gander too", so we would like to suggest to Congressman Abernethy or Senator Eastland that they sponsor a bill to put the same Federal Tax upon cow butter that is being imposed upon Oleomargarine and forget the point value, as that is only a temporary thing and a Federal Tax is usually a generation to generation arrangement.

It's true that little Margy at one time in the long ago past was considered an outcast; and was slipped in the back door and hid if company came, but... those days are in the far past and old Margy rides the big Limousine and uses the front door now as big as anyone.

But A Friend Indeed

Yes, Margy is now a friend indeed and a good many hot biscuits and toast are being greased with good old invigorating, healthy Oleomargarine.

Oleomargarine in most cases can take the place of butter and we think that they both should have the same break and let each tub stand on its own bottom and if butter can't hold its own against Oleomargarine just let it go to grass where it came from.

We feature PARKAY, NU-MAID and ALL-SWEET but we're not employed to tout their horns, but they're all good.

Somewhere In The Aleutians

We're somewhere in the Aleutians
Where the sky is never 'tis
And the rain comes down in on-kets
Till it soaks you thru and thru
The wind rips round the mountains
And the snow flows off the peaks.
You lie shivering in your bed rolls,
Cause the roof is full of leaks.

We're somewhere in the Aleutians
Though we cannot say just where.
It doesn't make a bit of difference
Cause no one seems to care.
We're Uncle Sam's lost soldiers,
And we haven't any friends.
We just hope they don't forget us,
When this darn war finally ends.
We hate all Japs and Nazis

In Europe too, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Belgium, Holland, France, Norway and other countries were striving for better, more peaceful days and then Austria spawned Adolf Hitler.

And we step right in their face.
If it wasn't for those mad men,
We'd have never seen this place.

We're somewhere in the Aleutians
Where the girls are as scarce as tires,
And your only relaxation is to sit
Huddled around the fire.
We're always damp and chilly
But we never die of thirst.
It starts raining May the second,
And doesn't quit 'till May the first.

We're somewhere in the Aleutians
Where the nights are as black as pitch.
If you happen to miss the foxholes:
You'll break your leg in a ditch.

We're somewhere in the Aleutians
Where you work from dawn till taps.
While you're waiting for the Japs.
This is the poem of the Aleutians,
With its beauty and wonderful sights.
But I'd give you the place for nothing
For one look at the good old "USA."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCormick

These two excellent people were born and reared, brought up their own family, lived and died in what is now Grenada county. Brother McCormick was born July 17, 1842, sister McCormick was born Sept. 19, 1854. Clementine Weir was her maiden name. He went away to be with the Lord Jesus March 13, 1943. She followed on Oct. 12. He was the last of his family. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ida Angeline, of Grenada. Mrs. McCormick was the oldest, the surviving sister the youngest of the family.

This couple married January 10th, 1871. There were twelve children, seven survive: R. H., J. H., J. W., E. G., A. B. and M. Q., all of Grenada, and Mrs. Mattie Trussell, Itta Bena, Miss. Among the children that survive that should be listed, a niece, Mrs. T. H. Harris, Senatobia, Miss. She became a member of the family on the death of her parents when she was two years and a half old. There are twenty-five grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

This good man and woman were of two splendid families, among the first settlers of this country. The writer has never heard of a Weir or a McCormick costing the county one cent in any kind of court. They are not that kind of people. Brother and sister McCormick were as neighbors understanding, sympathetic, and helpful; as citizens patriotically true as the compass; in their home life they were very imbedded of conjugal fidelity, and paternal devotion, and genuine hospitality.

God was generous to them by nature, they were endowed with good minds, strong bodies and souls, with a high sense of right. God was also generous to them by grace. In their youth they were brought up through the word of God by the Holy Spirit to know Christ Jesus as their Savior. They joined a Baptist church and followed their Lord in baptism. They did not have their salvation on their goodness, but only on the grace of God. They could sing with understanding, "My Hope is Built on Nothing Else Than Jesus Blood and Righteousness." Their only claim was, "Sinners Saved by Grace." They were true and faithful servants of the Lord Jesus. They were intelligent and lively members of His body, the church. While they lived they blessed the world, and through their influence and their offsprings they continue to bless the world.

Beloved bereaved ones, God granted you a rare privilege to have them with you so long. They have left you an exceedingly rich heritage in all that is true and good. Jesus says to us, "I will raise them up at the last day." Therefore, you are to "sorrow not as those who have no hope."

Just this personal word: To me they were great people. Every association with was benediction. I loved them for their own true worth, and also because they loved the Lord Jesus. To go into their home, as I did often, and take the New Testament that he read, here time after time, and talk with them of Christ Jesus our Savior and Lord was a high and holy privilege, the memory of which I shall always cherish. Their pastor,

E. R. Henderson.

MEET "BERTIE, THE B. T. U."
"Bertie" is the invisible warmth-giving heat kernel that lives in your fuel. Right now with Jack Frost on his way Bertie is particularly important. You should guard Bertie, the warmth-maker, diligently for there are just so many of him in your fuel supply and each one that escapes is forever lost.

"In professional heating circles, Bertie is known as "B. T. U." — an abbreviation of his full name, British Thermal Unit. To us who have studied nutrition, he is the first cousin to the calorie. Bertie being the heat factor in fuel just as the calorie is in your food."

How Bertie can meet his death toll is many.

An open window takes a toll of Bertie's. By shutting off the heat before you open the windows in the bedrooms at night, you will keep them out of harm's way.

Bertie is like to gang up around doors; the instant you open one scores of heat units are lost. They are snuffed out by the descending cold air of an open stairway. They are snatched away by the updraft of an open fireplace.

Bertie is the spirit that keeps you warm if you keep him away from harm. As the heat warden of your home, make it your responsibility to turn every Bertie to good account—for Bertie has a job to do in war production this winter and he has no energy to waste.

We also have an invitation to be General Malony's guest at the review (postponed from last Tuesday), but I am not used to Generals, just used to non-coms.

On Saturday, January 8th Vote For Snip Crenshaw For Marshal

Submitted to and approved by J. D. Crenshaw.

Snip Crenshaw Makes Statement Regarding Controversy

Upon my return from my duties with Gooch Lumber Company Tuesday, rumors reached me that Major C. S. Lloyd, the Provost Marshal, on Saturday last had called by telephone a list of what he called "leaders," asking them to support my opponent in the race for Marshal in the race to be settled Saturday.

I called the Camp Commander and demanded that he cause Major Lloyd to make a public apology and to retract his statements, or, I would take the matter up direct with Washington.

On Wednesday Major Lloyd was placed in the Station Hospital. On Wednesday morning, Major Lloyd sent L. T. Bowers to carry me to see Major Lloyd at the hospital. Upon arrival there, Major Lloyd was profuse in his apologies to me for interfering in behalf of my opponent in the nearby race. He stated that he would give anything on earth to undo what he had said on Saturday (the day he contacted a number of voters by telephone.) After I asked him if he had ever before seen me, and ever knew anything of my experience or ability, he replied that he had not. He repeated apologies and begged me not to report it to Washington, for he felt that report reaching Washington concerning his political activity would mean his instant dismissal from the U. S. Army.

I agreed that, after making this public statement to protect my own interest, I would drop the matter.

I am sorry that Major Lloyd is sick, and I would not publicize this if I thought that Major Lloyd would be cured by Friday so that he could make his own apologies.

I will appreciate the votes and influence of the people of Grenada and I do not solicit any support from the Army, though I promise to go more than half way in cooperating with it, should I be elected.

Sincerely,

J. D. CRENSHAW

Grenada Soldier's Skill Helps Army Salvage

Headquarters, European Theater of Operations: Sewing machines in the salvage section of a huge Quartermaster Depot in Great Britain are kept in good repair by Corporal William L. Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bailey of 620 Levee Street, Grenada, Mississippi.

A skilled mechanic, Corporal Bailey repairs and maintains machines used in the vital work of salvaging web and canvas equipment from all parts of the European Theater of Operations. New sewing machines are almost unobtainable, and some of the machines being used date back to the last war, so Bailey's job is a full-time one.

"Corporal Bailey is a life saver to us," said L. A. Charles B. Ashley, chief of the salvage section of the depot. Before Bailey arrived last August, the lieutenant had asked in vain for a skilled civilian repairman. None could be spared from essential industry.

Corporal Bailey learned his skill in civilian life at Grenada Industries, Inc. in Grenada, where he repaired sewing and loom machines for some time before his induction in February, 1943. He trained his wife, Mrs. Anne P. Bailey, to take over his job, and she is now working in his place.

Ben T. Winter Buried Here Last Saturday

Benjamin Torance Winter, 79, of Pochontas died in a Jackson hospital last Friday, December 31, 1943 after a short illness.
